The work of Joanne Segal Brandford at SF Craft & Folk Art Museum 3/4-4/30

The museums at Fort Mason are collaborating on a joint fundraiser, a progressive open house on April 30 from 1 to 6pm. In addition to their exhibitions, each museum is presenting a special event. Included are music, dance groups, a fashion show, and ethnic refreshments by Uhuru Foods.

The Mexican Museum presents three exhibitions: "Mascaras: Reflections of a Culture," "Retablos, Ex-votos and Santos: Selections from the Permanent Collection," and "Colores: Mexican Folklife and Folklore Imagery." In addition, the dance troupe "Cielito Lindo" performs, and there is a display of "Living Plants of Ancient Mexico."

Museo ItaloAmericano presents photographs by Gino Sbrano of rural Italian life in the Bay Area from 1910 to 1927 in the exhibition "Chi Erano - Who Were They?" Special events include a pasta-making demonstration and a performance by Commedia Dell'Arte.

San Francisco Craft & Folk Art Museum displays a procession of folk figures depicting traditional life in Sapelo Island, Georgia, in "The Life and History of Hog Hammock: Contemporary Folk Sculptures and Drawings by Aminah Robinson." Also on show: "Baskets and Nets" by Joanne Segal Brandford. Banjo players add a musical background, storytellers regale the young and young at heart, and Obiko presents a spectacular fashion show.

San Francisco African American Historical & Cultural Society presents "Black History Through Sculpture" by the Rev. Daniel Buford, depicting the Black experience through history. The artist will also speak about his work, and entertainment is provided by the Wajumbi Dance Group.

San Francisco Museum of Modern Art Rental Gallery exhibits "Four Contemporary Realists," paintings by James Barnsness, Dennis Potter, Francesca Sundsten and Eugenia Tusquets. Jazz musicians John Goodman, Marvin Chandler and Ben Miller perform.

On this day only, Sunday, April 30, the participating museums are closed to all but Museum Muster ticketholders. Tickets may be purchased the day of the event at the Fort Mason Center office in Building A, or may be ordered in advance and picked up at the office the day of the event (see coupon for advance orders). Tickets are $15, or $13 for Friends of the Fort or members of any of the participating museums. Children under 12 are admitted free. For information, call 775-0990.

THE CALIFORNIA GARDEN

The Fourth Annual San Francisco Landscape Garden Show pays tribute to the California garden, highlighting designs by master landscape architects Garrett Eckbo and Robert Royston. Also included are gardens by twenty-five of California's top designers, the winning children's miniature gardens from a citywide competition, special hardscape and horticultural displays, garden talks and demonstrations by experts, a Town Square marketplace for gardening tools and treasures, a plant doctor and a Bay View cafe for lunch and snacks.

The show is presented in Fort Mason's Festival Pavilion, Pier 3, April 19 through 23. Hours are Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, 10am to 6pm, Thursday and Friday, 10am to 9pm. Admission is $7 for adults, $6 for seniors, and $5 each for groups of ten or more if prepaid and scheduled by April 10. Children 12 and under, when accompanied by an adult, are admitted free. There is a final-day sale of plants from gardens and exhibits on Sunday, April 23 from 4 to 6pm. A Gala Preview Party, at $100 per person, takes place the evening of Tuesday, April 18.

The exhibition benefits Friends of Recreation and Parks, with proceeds used for improvements to Golden Gate Park and neighborhood parks and playgrounds. For information, call 221-4752.

FMC UPDATE: THEATER

The spring brings a rich and varied schedule of theater productions to Fort Mason Center, including the opening of the new Cowell Theater in Pier 2.

Life On The Water presents Artists From Another Israel. The festival of contemporary theater, April 4 through 16, is an artist to artist interchange of common bonds and common ground, bringing together young independent Jewish and Arab artists from Israel and North America. Featured are the North American debuts of four innovative Israeli performing arts groups, a gathering of poets, dancers, musicians and theater performers, an Arabic music and dance event, and a Passover Seder celebrating peace and coexistence. There will also be films and panel discussions.

Also scheduled at LOTW are the preview performances of The Takeover, April 26 through May 2, with the premiere on May 2 and the regular run through May 28. The Takeover, by Bill Talen, is about a battle between two of the oldest banks in America, paralleling the personal struggle between a man and a woman, each an employee of one of the rival banks. Domination and submission are the issues in both battles, and the question becomes who is taking over whom. For LOTW information, call 776-8999.

Magic Theatre presents the San Francisco premiere of Jose Rivera's The Promise, a magical fairy tale about the primitive impulses ruling family relations - the patriarch driven by fantasies of revolution and power, his children embodying love, honor, and spiritual commitment. The Promise runs from April 5 through 30.

Also opening on April 5 is Magic's performance art series, April in Chaos. The three-act programs combine dance, music, theater and video. A local band performs each of the nights. April in Chaos runs through April 22.

Magic Theatre will also present the first full theater production in Fort Mason's Cowell Theater, the Bay Area premiere of Frankie and Johnny in the Claire De Lune. Watch for details in the May Calendar. For Magic Theatre information, call 441-8822.

Other April productions include Ain't I A Woman, a portrayal of feisty abolitionist Sojourner Truth by writer/actress Shirlene Holmes (see April 15) and a special family entertainment, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, the delightful adventures of Willy Wonka including wonderful special effects (see April 22).

The Cowell Theater opens April 28 in Fort Mason's Pier 2 with Asian Arts Alive: A Festival of Traditional and Contemporary Bay Area Asian American Arts. Included are the Asian American Dance Collective, Pear Garden in the West, Asian American Theater Company and the Kearney Street Workshop. The program continues through May 7. For festival information, call 552-8980.

Parking Lot Alert

The long-awaited parking area repavement project has begun at Fort Mason. As a result, at various, and unfortunately unpredictable, times during the next six months you may find loud construction noises, mud puddles, and temporary detours. Also, there will be reduced parking availability throughout the construction period, so use of public transportation and carpooling is recommended. Your tolerance, cooperation, and awareness of construction hazards are appreciated.

Recycling Center The SF Community Recyclers' site at Fort Mason Center is temporarily closed due to parking lot construction. Call 285-0669 for information & other locations.
